CALL TO ORDER/ROLL CALL

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Amy Lowe. Roll call deemed a quorum present.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The balance as of July 31, 2018 was $6,796.93 in addition to the funds being held for the SEMA projects.

OLD BUSINESS

Mrs. Hunt reported that she is working on a presentation for the proposed splash pad, but is waiting on images from the company.

NEW BUSINESS

WORK DAY-A work day will be scheduled later to be completed prior to the volleyball/corn hole tournament which will be held on September 22nd. Weed eating around the exercise equipment and butterfly garden is a priority.

PROJECT UPDATES

RAILING FOR TRAIL-Hole for the railing posts need to be dug for this project to be completed. Mrs. J. Cordsiemon contacted Sonny Taylor and he agreed to assist Mike Talbot in completing this project.

FUNDRAISING

CORN HOLE/VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT- Plans continue to make the tournaments successful. The fire department will be hosting the beer garden, the corn hole games are completed with 4 logos sold. Several vendors have committed and paid for space and Mrs. Hunter has secured two volleyball nets. The Elsberry Democrat will be sponsoring Champion Rings for the winning volleyball team and Mr. Short is having the cornhole trophies made. Koozies will be sold as a fund raiser and wrist bands will be required for purchasing alcohol. A DJ is still needed for the event.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned upon motion by Mr. Short, seconded by Mrs. Lowe and duly carried.

Minutes were prepared by Jo Ann Cordsiemon from notes taken Khristta McMillan Cooper.
